

NATALIE

You can. You have to try. For all those little girls out there who wish they had your talent. Who want to spin on their head and do crazy moves they thought were impossible.

LOGAN

I don't know.

Natalie's words mean something to Logan.

NATALIE

I know it won't be easy but you have to seize every opportunity.

LOGAN

But what if I fail?

NATALIE

Then you get back up again. Girl, I know you've seen all my epic fails in practice.

Logan laughs.

NATALIE (CONT'D)

The session is right after ballet class. We will all be there, supporting you. We can be your hype bitches.

LOGAN

...Okay.

NATALIE

That's a yes? Yay!

Natalie pumps her fist in the air -- victory!

NATALIE (CONT'D)

We got your back. Promise.

LOGAN

Okay, see you tomorrow.

Start INT. BALLET STUDIO - THE NEXT DAY

The gymnastics team and a handful of ballet dancers (including Logan) stand together at the barre.

BALLET TEACHER

We are very pleased to have some special guests today, our very own OU gymnastics team. We are going to work with them to help reinforce the basics.

End

Logan and Chayse share a look -- is she for real -- a cute moment between friends.

MONTAGE:

-The dancers teach the gymnasts different ballet techniques -- at first, a lot of them fall over and struggle, but they get the hang of it.

END MONTAGE.

CHAYSE

Ballet is hard.

NATALIE

So hard.

AJ

I think it's great.

AJ does a beautiful ballet move. Eye rolls. Of course, AJ is perfect at everything.

NATALIE

Okay, Miss Perfect.

At the end of class, the gymnasts and dancers are stretching at the barre. Logan looks outside and sees the University b-boy crew sessioning -- she's distracted.

The girls follow her eyes to what she's looking at --

CHAYSE

We gotta go now.

LOGAN

We can't, class isn't over!

AJ

We got you.

NATALIE

I'll create a diversion.

LOGAN

Oh, no.
